you are as well!

ALWAYS been proud to say that I am a Correctional Nurse – I hope that reaching, even if it is not always evident as we care for our patients. The impact we make is far-reaching, but always very important to our patients. The profession of Correctional Nursing is unique and sometimes challenging, but I have always very much enjoyed being a part of it. I have had the opportunity to care for patients in a variety of settings, and each experience has taught me something new. I have learned that it is important to be patient, understanding, and compassionate as we care for our patients. The professionals who work in this field are committed to providing the best possible care, and I am proud to be a part of it.

In closing, I appreciate you taking the time to read this newsletter, and I hope that you will find our sites interesting and educational. Our clinical topic this month is Systemic Lupus Erythematosus. We will discuss the symptoms, diagnosis, and treatment of this condition, as well as any potential complications. We will also cover the monitoring of the patient and how to effectively manage the illness.
